Some of my haikus are bilingual / trilingual and truly Indian. They move around the several issues and perspectives of modern world besides the glories of the Indian culture and literature. In some haikus you can find unique Indianness which is a synthesis of my traditional outlook and modern perspective. Some Western readers may find some of my haikus difficult to follow as they have traditional Indian images, symbols and references. Some haikus were mailed to Poets International for favour of publication. 150 haikus were posted on Sri Aurobindo Group of What'sApp and published an article in KJES.
